ADVERTISING RATES FOR THE ROCKET'S BLAST - COMICOLLECTOR

REGULAR CLASSIFIED ADS: All of these type ads will be reduced to 1/3 their size. Therefore, a full page ad (8½ x 11) would be about 1/3 of a page when printed up. Nothing will be left out, the type size will just be reduced. All ads of this type should be submitted typed (if possible) on WHITE PAPER ONLY. Type only on a BLACK RIBBON that is not worn out, because if it is too light, it will reproduce poorly. Observe normal margins. The rate for these is $5.25 per page. We must reserve the right to reassemble (only if necessary) your ads of this type to fill out the page. For smaller ads, the rate is 10¢ per line (seven inch typed line).

SPECIAL 25% CLASSIFIED ADS: These 25% ads are reduced to 1/2 their size, instead of 1/3. Therefore, a full page ad (8½ x 11) would be about half a page when printed up. The rate for this type is $7.50 per page. Submit as above. Again, we reserve the right to reassemble (only if necessary).

SPECIAL 50% CLASSIFIED ADS: These 50% ads are reduced to 1/4 their size. Therefore a full page ad (8½ x 11) would be about 1/4 of a page when printed. This is fairly small, but still readable. The rate for this type is $4.25 per page. Submit as above. If you intend to run four pages at this rate ($17.00), you can run it for only $14.00 by pasting the ad up on a layout sheet (16 x 21), yourself, thereby saving $3.00.

SPECIAL CLASSIFIED ADS: They are printed as is. Therefore, if you submit a full page (8½ x 11), it will be 8½ x 11 when printed up. Submit in the same manner as "regular" classified ads. The rate for this type is $14.00 per page.

HERE IS AN IMPORTANT WAY YOU CAN SAVE MONEY ON YOUR RB&CC ADVERTISING:
SAY, FOR INSTANCE, YOU HAVE A THREE PAGE AD THAT YOU WANT TO RUN AT THE "REGULAR" RATE OF $5.25 PER PAGE. THAT WOULD COST YOU A TOTAL OF $15.75. HOWEVER, HERE IS HOW YOU COULD RUN IT FOR ONLY $14.00 AND SAVE $1.75. YOUR THREE PAGE AD RUN REGULAR WOULD COME OUT 8½ x11 WHEN PRINTED UP. THEREFORE, IF YOU SUBMIT YOUR AD ALREADY LAYED OUT ON A SHEET 13½ x 17½ (WHICH WILL BE REDUCED DOWN TO 8½ x 11), YOU CAN RUN IT AT THE "SPECIAL" RATE OF $14.00. "MAKE UP SHEETS" CAN BE MADE BY USING BY USING CELLOPHANE TAPE AND REGULAR WHITE PAPER, TAPING THEM SO THEY FIT THE MEASURMENTS. THEN YOU CAN TYPE UP YOUR AD ON OTHER PAPER AND GLUE IT ON THE MAKE UP SHEET AND MAKE YOUR OWN LAYOUT. THIS ENABLES YOU TO MAKE YOUR OWN LAYOUT, WHICH, WILL BE PRINTED AS YOU SUBMIT IT, PROVIDING YOU FOLLOW THE INSTRUCTIONS. REMEMBER, ALWAYS USE A DARK RIBBON.
IF YOU ARE GOING TO SUBMIT A TWO PAGE AD AT THE "25%" RATE, YOU CAN SAVE THIS WAY TOO. TWO PAGES SEPARATELY AT THE "25%" RATE WOULD COST YOU $15.00. BUT, IF YOU SUBMIT IT ALREADY LAYED OUT ON A SHEET 12 x 15½ INCHES, YOUR COST IS, AGAIN, ONLY $14.00----A SAVINGS OF $1.00
DISPLAY ADVERTISERS CAN MAKE UP YOUR OWN LAYOUTS TOO, USING THE ABOVE MEASUREMENTS, DEPENDING ON HOW MUCH YOU WANT IT REDUCED IN SIZE

DISPLAY ADS: These are 25¢ per page more and are usually given better locations than classified.
REGULAR DISPLAY: (reduced 1/3) $5.50 per page
25% DISPLAY: (reduced 1/2) $7.75 per page
50% DISPLAY: (reduced 1/4) $4.50 per page
SPECIAL DISPLAY: (printed as is) $14.25 per page

When submitting any of the above ads be sure to specify; "REGULAR", "25%", "50%", or "SPECIAL". FULL payment must accompany all ads. Any ads received after the given deadline will be run in the following issue without exception!!!!!!! SEND ALL RB&CC ADS AND "SPEED AD" ORDERS TO THE S.F.C.A.

ADVERTISING DEADLINE FOR RB&CC #59:
JUNE 7th

"SPEED ADS"

These ads don't appear in the RB&CC. They are sent out with the orders that we fill. We send out anywhere from 200 to 400 orders per month. About 75% of these orders are from new fans who are answering our various ads which appear constantly in various comics (MARVEL, TOWER, etc.). This means, your "SPEED AD" will be going out within THREE DAYS, in most cases, after I receive it.
READY SHEET SPEED ADS:
These are ads that you print up on sheets and send to us for distribution. Minimum order 200
Rates: $1.00 per hundred
$7.50 per thousand, 75¢ for every additional 100 over 1,000.

IMPORTANT ADVERTISING INFORMATION:

This concerns those of you who use the "regular" rate. In order to do away with the necessity of printing some of these ads sideways, we are, on the pages containing "regular" ads, cutting down the margins as much as possible. Normally, a "regular" one page ad occupies about 1/3 of a page, but by cutting the margins, it occupies a little less than 1/3 of a page. You still get the same amount of space you pay for (well, maybe, about 1/7 of an inch less), and your type size remains the same. By doing it this way, in most cases, we can run all your "regular" ads straight, instead of printing part or all of it sideways. However, if you want to prove to yourself that your type size remains the same just compare it with the type size of the Fandom Annual #1 advertisement, which is run at the "50%" size.

THE END OF AN ERA

THIS IS THE ONE ALL OF YOU E.C. FAN-ANTICS HAVE BEEN WAITING FOR !!

Bill Parente takes an indepth look at the old E.C. line. He explores and discusses its' faults and weaknesses, but more importantly, he tells why E.C. has never been matched for pure quality. Along with Bill's fine article, you'll see reproductions of E.C. art by Wood, Joe Orlando, Williamson, Krenkel, and Davis, PLUS a photo of Wally Wood. To top it off, we managed to have pro artist John Fantucchio draw a beautiful 7-color front cover for this issue, and believe me, it is in the TRUE EC tradition. And if that wasn't enough, we also have a full color back cover by one of fandoms best artists (and this is no idle statement) Buddy Saunders.

THE ROCKET'S BLAST SPECIAL #7 is printed photo-offset throughout with professional wrap-around binding and all copies will be mailed flat in a heavy envelope. Price: 75¢ per copy.

SUPER-HEROES ARE BIG BUSINESS

"Holy Toys And Hobbies" exclaimed Robin, as he and Batman (art work by Murphy Anderson) held a photograph of some of the 1400 articles using their name and picture during the "Batman Craze" of 1966. From slippers, pillows and ball point pens to lolly pops, ice cream and table lamps they sold over $75 million worth of merchandise. "Biggest Thing Ever To Happen To The Toy Industry" said Toys & Novelties, the bible of the industry, in this same April 15, 1966 issue. A gum company couldn't wait to hand over a check for $40,000.00, representing a one month's sale of bubble gum cards. At a 5% royalty, this figured as $800,000.00 worth of chewing ! The licensing agents did so superior a job (each of the two principals accounted for over $1 million in initial fees) that they were ultimately bought out by National Periodicals. When it was all over, Gotham City's first citizen left a path of destruction that assured him of having no other super hero match his performance. More about this further on in the article.

Previously, most companies took a wait-and-see attitude toward comic and cartoon characters lucky enough to find themselves on the TV screen as a Saturday or Sunday AM program. Licenses to use them on toys and other items were not applied for until the results of polls were available. Mickey Mouse and Co. of course, holds the longevity record in this respect, having reigned for 40 years. Popeye in the mid-thirties enjoyed a two year exposure not quite rivaling Batman's smash. But the comic character who I believe, in time, will walk away with all honors is the grandaddy of all super heroes.....the man of steel ! Not a year goes by that doe not see Superman on at least 25 articles. He has remained an accepted and appealing personality for over 25 years, and my company renewed our license for 1968 after enjoying a good 1967 with him.

I said previously that Batman, for all the good he did for the exchequer at 575 Lexington Ave., left so many scars on both buyers and manufacturers, that new arrivals such as the Marvel Super Heroes, received a cold reaction. Originally scheduled for the fall, 1966 season, Batman was rushed onto the ABC-TV screens in January as a replacement for one of many failures. This was traditionally a bad time for the toy industry in particular, because it left us with a short 7 weeks shipping period. In that time many companies were expected to rush through tools, dies and other expensive equipment. Many were inferior, many were completed too late, and many were unappealing. By the time production was in high gear, the summer h ad arrived, children were off to camp or elsewhere. Sporting goods and outdoor toys were the big sellers. Came the fall, money was spent for school supplies. As a result, buyers and purchasing agents, who were mesmerized into overbudgetting themselves with Batman items found their shelves overstocked. They vowed never again to let this happen, no matter what prospects new comic characters hold. It is the buyer who controls the success or failure of products, for unless it is on the shelves, the buying public is not afforded the opportunity of having it available. If they don't see it, they can't buy it and nobody makes any money.

It is now two years since Batman struck, and once again some inroads are being made by super heroes. However, these past performances have had an all too powerful bearing on the way comic publishers regulate themselves in my opinion. Their eyes are on the rewards from getting one or more of their stable on TV. They will accommodate a TV production company by altering a particular character to suit the screen. Take Aquaman for instance. He has acquired the same hard water powers that his wife Mera has. As hit pummels an advisary with water balls, a nonsensical walrus named Tusky swims by, and into the pages of the Aquaman magazine, adding exactly nothing to the plot. Hawkman on TV is a scientist, not a museum director, and his wife Hawkgirl has been replaced by a giant hawk. Will this change find itself transferred onto the pages of Hawkman magazine ? Since Murphy Anderson abandoned the strip, it has reached a sad low, and many Hawkman advocates are pining for the good old days of Joe Kubert-Anderson renditions.

It would appear that a publishing house is hard put to stay in business without the added revenue of TV and/or outside merchandising. Of the companies that left the costumed, super-hero field (the list is a long and frightening one based upon events of the past 15 months), how many enjoyed such outside activity ? Charlton recently gave up their action-hero line. ACG left. Harvey suddenly dropped their Thriller Series after an impressive start. Did Archie Comics do away with their Radio Comics subsidiary ? Lightning petered out after three and two issues respectively of Fatman and Super Green Beret. After cancelling Undersea Agents, Dynamo and Noman, Tower's Thunder Agents has failed to make a regularly scheduled appearance on the newsstands. One wonders if TV is doing to comic books what it did to many sports.....inundate them with lucrative aspects until they drown in the money. The waters dry up and nothing is left. Marvel has allowed Hanna-Barbara to use stories from one, and sometimes two complete issues of Spiderman and the Fantastic Four for each weekly program. On the basis of a 39 week season, the TV screen will catch up to the number of issues published in another 2 years. Then what ??.....assuming these two magazines retain their original identity by that time !

In summary, I think we purists should keep a wary eye on the activities of the publishers. They seem to be overcommercializing themselves with interests outside their immediate realm. This can, and perhaps is already effecting the quality of their product line.

COLLECTORS BOOK STORE

A History of the Comic Strip

by Pierre Couperie and Maurice Horn

A HISTORY OF THE COMIC STRIP is an English translation of the French book, Bandes Dessinees & Figuration, and is being published by one of the top book firms in this country. Reflecting the current European interest in American comic strips which led to the recent exhibition at the Louvre, the book contains 256 pages and measures 8½x11 in size. It offers extensive illustrations, including samplings of Flash Gordon by Alex Raymond, Tarzan by Hogarth, and Buck Rogers, as well as a limited coverage of the comic book field. It's twelve chapter titles are as follows:

1. Introduction
2. Origins of the Comic Strip
3. Period of Adjustment: 1910-1928
4. The Upheaval of the Thirties
5. Regeneration of the Comic Strip
6. The World of the Comic Strip
7. The Crisis of the Forties
8. The Comic Strip Audience
9. Narrative Technique
10. Ethics and Signification
11. Narrative Figuration
12. Production & Distribution

This book will be available in late May. It is presently scheduled to sell for $5.95, although it is quite possible this price will be increased, seeing as it is a hardcover book almost an inch-and-a-half thick. However, we are prepared to offer it thru April 30 only at a special pre-publication price of

$5.50 $5.50

Any subsequent price increase will, as always, be borne solely by our store. All copies will be wrapped in plastic and protected by two pieces of cardboard to insure arrival in mint condition.

RED RYDER
THE CLASSIC WESTERN STRIP
BY FRED HARMAN

BEYOND THE PALE RIM OF THE SHOKANOE MOUNTAINS AND BELOW THE SUN BRIGHT SKY REACHES A LAND OF VIVID COLOR, THE PAINTED VALLEY. IN THIS LAND OF RAINBOW BEAUTY LIVES A WOMAN KNOWN AS THE DUTCHESS, A MANNISH TYPE OF FEMALE WHO'S HUGE RANCH IS THE CENTRE PIECE OF THE PAINTED VALLEY. IT IS NOT OF HER HOWEVER THAT I WISH TO TELL BUT OF HER NEPHEW, A CARROT TOP CALLED RED RYDER. RED IS OF COURSE THE EPITOME OF ALL WESTERN HEROES. A BRONC RIDIN', FAST SHOOTIN', HARD HITTIN' SADDLE DRIFTER WHO IN THE COURSE OF HIS WANDERINGS FINDS MUCH ADVENTURE AND MEETS MANY DIFFERENT CHARACTERS. THE FIRST SUCH CHARACTER I SHALL TELL OF IS THE FIRST BOY SIDEKICK OF THEM ALL, LITTLE BEAVER. RED IS DESENDING THE SLOPES OF THE SHOKANOES WHEN HE COMES UPON AN INDIAN TRYING TO RIDE A WILD HORSE, AS RED PUT IT " A HOSS WITH A WILD HAIR ON IT ". THE POOR FELLOW IS THROWN AND DIES AND RED COMING UPON HIS BOY, LITTLE BEAVER DECIDES TO TAKE THE LITTLE BRAVE WITH HIM. RED IS HEADING TOWARD A TOWN THAT IS TO AFFORD HIM HIS FIRST ENCOUNTER WITH A MAN WHO IS TO BECOME HIS CHIEF ANTAGONIST AND WHO'S NAME IS DESTINED TO BE USED IN MANY WESTERN MOVIES TO EXEMPLIFY THE GAMBLER, VIZ. VERA CRUZ. THE MANS NAME, OF COURSE, IT'S " ACE " HANLON. NOT FORGETING THE TOWN IN QUESTION, DEVIL'S HOLE.

RED RESCUES A STAGE FROM AN ATTACK FROM THE DEVIL'S HOLE GANG ON HIS WAY INTO TOWN WITH THE BEAVER AND IN SO DOING HE MEETS BETH WILDER WHO IS TO BECOME HIS LOVE INTREST THROUGHOUT THE STORY. NOW TO SKIP AHEAD JUST A BIT TO GET TO ACE HANLON. ACE OF COURSE IS BEHIND THE DEVIL'S HOLE GANG AND WHEN RED GETS TO TOWN ACE TALKS RED INTO BECOMING SHERRIF OF THE TOWN THINKING HE WILL BE ABLE TO CONTROL THE COWBOY BUT RED KEEPS A TIGHT TOWN AND TURNS THE TABLES ON ACE. ACE DECIDES TO GET RID OF RED BY FRAMING HIM OF A WELLS FARGO ROBBERY.

RED REALIZING DISCRETION IS THE BETTER PART OF VALOR VAMOOSES THE TOWN FOR A WHILE SO AS TO CLEAR HIMSELF. ACE ORGANIZES A POSSE TO HUNT RED DOWN AND OF COURSE THEY FIND HIM. RED HOWEVER HAS MADE A FEW FRIENDS IN TOWN AND THEY HELP TO CLEAR HIM. ACE MAKES HIS PLAY AND TAKES FLIGHT WITH RED AND THE BEAVER IN FULL PURSUIT. IN A HEAD LONG PLUNGE OVER A CLIFF INTO A RIVER GOES ACE. RED FINDS HIS HAT AND TAKES HIM TO BE DEAD BUT HANLON IS VERY MUCH ALIVE. HE STAYS UNDER COVER FOR AWHILE IN HOPES OF CATCHING THE REDHEAD OFF GUARD. THIS LAYS THE GROUNDWORK FOR MANY LATER ADVENTURES. THIS THEN STARTS THE STORY OF RED RYDER AND LITTLE BEAVER. THIS STRIP FIRST MADE ITS APPEARANCE IN 1938 COPYRIGHTED BY THE NEA. SERVICE. FRED HARMAN THE WRITER AND ARTIST REALLY KNEW HIS SUBJECT WELL, THAT IS THE WEST. MR. HARMAN ALSO DID ANOTHER STRIP ABOUT A MORE MODERN AND UP TO DATE COWBOY THAN RED. THE NAME OF HIS OTHER EFFORT WAS BRONC PEELER. BRONC NEVER DID REACH THE TREMENDOUS POPULARITY THAT WAS ATTAINED BY RED RYDER THO. RED WAS USED AS AN INDORCEMENT FOR DAISY BB GUNS AND EVENTUALLY DAISY NAMED ONE OF THEIR GUNS AFTER RED, THE RED RYDER LIGHTNING LOADER CARBINE. DAISY HAD PUBLISHED THE RED RYDER HANDBOOK CHOCK FULL OF GENERAL INFORMATION SOME COMICS FEATURING AN ASSORTMENT OF DIFFERANT CHARACTERS FROM DIFFERANT PUBLISHERS. FRED HARMAN HAD HIS OWN DUDE RANCH WHERE HE OFFERED FREE VACATIONS TO THE KIDS WHO WON VARIOUS RED RYDER CONTESTS. RED RYDER APPEARED IN BOTH THE COMIC BOOKS AND IN THE BIG LITTLE BOOKS. THE FIRST COMIC BOOK I CAN REMEMBER RED IN WAS THE HI SPOT COMIC # 1, 1939. THE FIRST TWENTY PAGES OR SO WERE REPRINTED IN THE BIG LITTLE BOOK, ON THE HOOFS OF THUNDER. THIS FEATURED THE BEGINNING OF THE RED RYDER STORY. RED ALSO MADE THE MOVIES. I CAN REMEMBER TWO OF THE ACTORS THAT PLAYED HIS PART. ONE WAS DON BARRY AND OF COURSE THE ONE EVERY ONE KNOWS, THE PEACABLE MAN, WILD BILL ELLIOT. IN THE EARLY FORTIES RED GOT HIS OWN COMIC BOOK AND HE DESERVED IT. HARMANS ART WAS BEAUTIFUL. HIS FIGURES WERE A LITTLE OUT OF PORPORTION BUT HIS OVERALL ART MORE THAN MADE UP FOR THIS. HE TENDED TO DRAW THE EARS TOO BIG. RED WAS INDEED THE CLASSIC WESTERN STRIP. HE LACKED THE MYSTERY OF THE LONE RANGER BUT HIS REALIZM WAS MUCH THE BETTER. THE COMICS HAVE AT ONE TIME OR OTHER COVERED EVERY FACET OF LIFE AND FANTASY AND RED RYDER COVERED HIS PART WELL. I COMEND HIGHLY FRED HARMAN AND HIS CREATION OF RED RYDER, ALWAYS ONE OF MY PERSONAL FAVORITES AND IN THIS I KNOW I'M NOT ALONE. THANK YOU MR. HARMAN FROM ONE WHO TRULY APPRECIATES YOUR EFFORTS.

ED LAHMANN....

BLASTS FROM THE READERS

Dear G.B.,

The various SFCA publications and services are all useful to us in the hobby. I wonder what comic collecting was like before its advent, and one had only used magazine shops and drafty attics to haunt, searching for some rare ish. Probably cheaper. But there were no lovingly written and illustrated offset zines crammed to the margins with swams of typing errors....when will fans learn how to type? I have at last figured out where Metropolis and Gotham City are! How many fans have wondered, if Gotham City is New York, considering the origin of the name Gotham. Does that make Metropolis Boston, or Hartford, or Philadelphia, or where? Well, finally, I have the answer. Metropolis and Gotham City are not on the East Coast but in the mid-west. With all the charity bazaars and charity balls and charity benefits and charity carnivals and charity air-races and all proceeds going to charity on the Supergirl Doll and charity first day take from the toll bridge, the only possible location for either city is in West Virginia, smack in the middle of Appalachia, where half the population must be on relief! It was brought out a while back in ACTION that all royalties from Supergirl merchandise were donated to charity. You certainly don't catch DC giving all the royalties they get off trade-named merchandise to charity.

A group of us recently had a discussion on the size of Duckburg. How big a city is it? It had us stumped for awhile, because it seems to vary from story to story. We stuck at last to the version laid out in the older comics (was this Carl Barks who did the artwork on these? Whoever it was maintained the highest standard of sheer quality for an unbelievesbly long time. For good humor and beautiful art, he will never be matched. He was a genius.) and are certain that the city has at least 75,000 inhabitants. Estimates have ranged as high as a million, though my personal guess puts it at 100,000. I know a recent story had Duckburg struggling to make 10,000, but the story is a typical goodie-goodie children's story, that this and the other thing happening, then it's over. I meant the Duckburg of the older days, when it had a giant dance pavillion where Donald and Daisy won a contest with reputedly poison oak Christmas wreaths, a Duckburg with the Moneybin, a Duckburg with swanky department stores and automobile showrooms where Gladstone could buy two fantastically expensive imports, a Duckburg that was the nerve center of the world-wide McDuck Enterprises...not a crummy little village of less than ten thousand. That old Duckburg was the queen of cities. I loved it when I was a kid. It was a big city, proud, and most of all, it had artistic integrity. Yes, artistic, for this was art. The stories and the panels were not put-ons designed for nothing more than a quick profit cashing in on a famous name, but fine artistic creations independent in themselves, and thoroughly, thoughtfully sincere. The adventures of Donald Duck, Uncle Scrooge, and the nephews stand, in my opinion, taller than either Superman's or Captain Marvel's. The stories of Duckburg were the finest achievement of the Golden Age. They have never been surpassed. This was Duckburg, to me the biggest city in the world.

Oh, before I get carried away on another philosophical meandering, does anybody out there know Jerry Siegel's address. I'd love to get ahold of him for an interview, and find out the full story of how he and Joe Shuster dreamed up Superman, and whether he wanted him to turn out like he did, and whose nutty idea was the mermaids and bizarros and idiot kryptonites and Super-Monkey and the idolization of the U.N. and the pop mythology and all the rest of the cluttering trash. If anybody out there knows where Siegel is, I hope he will please write and send the address.

Note to Ray Miller: Marvel may just someday beat out Captain Marvel's record for a 25 episode serial, if it hasn't already.

Dear G.B.,

I've certainly enjoyed those newspaper articles about comics which you've recently been printing in the RB&CC. Looking at those, it seems to me that the comics cult is really making a name for itself, but a recent visit to my city library greatly discouraged this view. I was told by a friend that the aforementioned establishment did verily contain within its walls the sworn enemies of Dr. Wertham--comics! Upon venturing there one cold, wintry eve, I entered the honorable abode and journeyed to the Art and Music Department, wherein I was assured that my friend had indeed spoken with a straight tongue. But (alas!(the comics had been moved down to the main floor. My anxiety grew with an ever-increasing intensity, but I managed to quell my excitement and very calmly did I go forth and ask the librarian on duty where I might find those most treasured works of art and literature. To my utter amazement she gazed upon my countanence quite dumbfoundedly and said, "I don't know about any comic books up here. Why don't you try down in the Children's department?" (Gasp! Choke! Wheeze!) After recovering from the initial shock, I gathered up my wits and told her in as firm a voice as I could muster that the librarian in the Art & Music dept. had said that the comics were on this floor and no other. While staring at me as though I were mentally demented or something, she solemnly swore that she knew nothing of any comics in this library and what in the world did I want them for anyway? I could see it was useless to inquire any furthur, and, after glancing around to see if there were any more librarians available (there were none, of course), I swallowed my grief and looked through the card catalogue, hoping to find something to console me in my hour of anguish I did find a copy of Jules Feiffer's "THE GREAT COMIC BOOK HEROES," but even that was hidden "way back in the "stack" section in some unknown, desolate place. After finding the book for me, the librarian thumbed through it and said, "Sure looks like kid stuff to me!" Oh, the pain! After grabbing the book from her and checking it out, I rushed out of that forsaken building, hoping to put it as far back in my memory as possible. Can you imagine having such an experience? It's enough to make a nervous wreack out of a person! But, upon picking up a copy of the RB&CC and seeing that I was not alone in my insanity, I found my confidence restored and my soul comforted.

Well, so much for that. Now I'd like to comment on some of the recent developements in the comics world. Hey! Have you seen a copy of DCs' STRANGE ADVENTURES lately? It's featuring a character named Deadman, and my prediction is that it won't be long before he'll be right on up there with DC's top heroes, maybe even getting his own mag as did the Spectre. The Deadman series is now being drawn by Neal Adams, whose occasional artwork in EERIE and CREEPY I've greatly admired. Adams is also now drawing the Spectre, and although Murphy Anderson is my favorite artist at DC, I think Adams will do a pretty good job filling his shoes. Things really seem to be happening at DC now, and many of their comics are getting to be worthwhile reading. One example is GREEN LANTERN. This comic has really been excellent ever since Caroll Ferris dumped Hal Jordan and Gil Kane started inking his own pencils. Now, however, Sid Greene, has again taken over the inking chores (curses!). I just can't stand his inking, especially the way he draws people's mouths. Oh well, maybe it's only a temporary change (at least I hope so). Getting back to the subject, even SUPERMAN is showing some signs of improvement, especially since Wayne Boring is drawing him again. BATMAN, however, still "ain't what he used to be!" A few months ago it seemed that Batman was getting away from that sickening "camp" stuff, but that comic still has a long way to go before I'll start buying it again. One thing which, I feel, would improve it artwise at least, is for Bob Kane to revert back to the "old style" and forget this "new-look" business. I don't care if Batman had a square jaw; I liked him better that way!

A few of Marvel's comics, too, could use some improvement artwise, particularly THE AVENGERS and X-MEN. Don Heck, in my opinion, is the worst comics illustrator in the business (yes, even worse than Sid Greene!). And though John Buscema and Werner Roth do not draw as bad as Heck, their artwork is still far from what I expect from Marvel. I have only other complaint about Marvel, and that is that there isn't enough dialogue in the strips which Gene Colan illustrates (don't get me wrong, I like his art very much). Perhaps this is necessary, due to the nature of his art, but it still seems that the comics that he draws take too little time to read.

I would like to echo the sentiments of Ken Mitchell that somebody undertake the job of publishing another adzine like the COMICOLLECTOR. (EDITOR: There are a couple of such zines now in the works. I think possibly both can succeed after they publish a few issues so advertisers can see that they are reliable, and providing they do not offer "too much" for too little and do not make over-zealous claims of circulation. Most fans, particular dealers, know about what it costs to print and mail out a zine and when rates are "too" low for the Amount of circulation claimed, this does not encourage people to advertise. Other adzines can succeed if their publishers are willing to put forth a lot of time and effort. I know, it takes time. Over 12 issues of the RB&CC were published before it gained just a small measure of success).

Yep, you heard it, Diamond Ron buys again!! Send me your lists in recent and Golden Age Marvels, DCs, etc, and I'll quote you my price. Not only am I interested in buying individual comics, but in buying entire collections as well!

Special wants: F.F. - 1-20
Spidey - 1-10, 20-33
JLA - 1-5
Adventure - 73-80, 93-99

I want DCs!! I need DCs as I am running very, very low.

When you write, ask for my selling list also. Thanks a lot for your time!

Oh, before I forget, comics must be good or better.

WANTED! FLASH GORDON by Alex Raymond THE SPIRIT by Will Eisner WANTED!

I would like to purchase large lots of FLASH GORDON Sunday pages by Alex Raymond 1934-44.(I can buy up to several hundred dollars of material at one time.) Although I already have a large number of these, I still need many more. Even if you have only one or two pages, let me know your price. I would prefer the full pages, with JUNGLE JIM, but I also buy the tabs. The earlier the pages are, the better; I especially want '34 pages in good or better condition. Condition of all pages must be good or better!

TRADE WANTED: I will trade the following four FLASH GORDON pages for two pages from 1934 or 35 in good or better condition, with JUNGLE JIM. These are doubles of pages already in my collection: 6-2-35(tab, fair), 6-16-35(the famous Hawkmen page, tab, near mint), 8-11-35(full page with JJ, POOR), 1-26-36(full page, with JJ, near mint). Send me a list of those you are willing to trade, stating their condition.

I also need SPIRIT material by Will Eisner or Jack Cole. My first wants are complete SPIRIT issues(Quality, Fiction House) and the Spirit Sunday sections. These get priority over POLICE issues. All must be complete and in good or better condition. Send me a list of what you have.

The following are miscellaneous items that I would be interested in buying, all should be in near mint or mint condition: ANY original Raymond, Eisner, Flash Gordon, or Spirit artwork; SHOWCASE with Adam Strange(#17, 18?); BLUE BEETLE(Ditko) #2; FLASH GORDON(King) #3, 5, 7, 8; several early MYSTERY IN SPACE issues; any original Adam Strange art by Infantino; SHOWCASE #22 and #?(Green Lantern); MYSTERY #2, 3, 4 on.

Drop me a letter if you have any of the above items for sale.

Announcing the

SOUTHWESTERNCON 1968

With two fabulously successful conventions behind them, Texas fandom marches ever onward with THE SOUTHWESTERNCON 1968! Offering all the things fans seek in a convention, THE SOUTHWESTERNCON promises to be the big event of the year in Comic Fandom!

The Con will be held on June 21, 22, and 23 at the Hotel Southland, in the heart of downtown Dallas, and we're expecting well over 100 fans to attend, as well as several pros. There'll be dozens of dealers on hand with literally tens of thousands of comics (both old and new), pulps, s-f magazines and hardbacks, movie posters, BLBs, etc. for sale and trade---a collector's paradise!---and we also have an auction scheduled. We'll have displays of many rare collector's items, foreign comics, and two solid walls lined with original artwork (both fan and pro)! There'll be a fanzine table with a wide selection of zines offered for sale, and we'll have door prizes for lucky fans, and, of course, there will be panel discussions on the important topics in fandom and prodom, with an opportunity for YOU to participate! There'll be many of fandom's leading fans in attendance,... Buddy Saunders, Matt Curtis, Marc Schooley, Gary Acord, Tom Reamy, Howard Keltner, L.L. Simpson, Kent Russell, Eddie Eddings, Howard ("The Shadow") Waldrop, Mike Benton, Doug Potter, Earl Blair, Rick Norwood, Roy Bonario, Lynn Woolley, and many, many more!

And, on top of all this, we have a truly outstanding line-up of movies that range from super-hero to sci-fi and offer something of special interest for everyone! Just take a look at THIS lineup...

Capt. MARVEL--the complete, 12 chapter serial, acknowledged by film fans as the best super-hero serial ever made! Tom Tyler stars as The Big Red Cheese in an epic that is unequalled for thrills and wild action!

DARROW [illegible]--a special premier showing of this never-before-seen classic science-fiction movie from Germany, in color, no less!

FLASH GORDON--this is a feature-length film version from the very FIRST Flash Gordon serial of 1936, starring Buster Crabbe as Flash and Charles Middleton as Ming the Merciless! Lionmen, hawkmen, cities in the sky,--man, you had better believe it!

THIEF OF BAGDAD--a fantastic epic of fantasy, winner of the 1941 Oscar for Special Effects...and it's all in color!

PLUS: On Friday night (June 21), beginning at 11:00 p.m. and lasting all night will be NON-STOP THEATRE, with movies all night long for those who don't want to sleep! We have such all-time greats as the uncut version of KING KONG, Bela Lugosi in THE VAMPIRE BAT, several nostalgic westerns from the "good ol' days," the awesome thriller of MIGHTY JOE YOUNG, several classics of comedy with the Laurel and Hardy team, and if that isn't enough, Con Film Director Mark Lamberti has some surprise films lurking in the shadows too...

So, with all these goodies planned now, and more activities being scheduled all the time, we urge you not to miss THE SOUTHWESTERNCON, the big event in fandom for 1968! All the arrangements have been made---we have TWO big convention rooms to assure everyone plenty of "elbow room," and we've gotten very reasonable room rates for out-of-town guests who'll be staying at the hotel. Rooms can be reserved in advance through the Con Chairman, and rates are covered in our special Con Booklet (details given below). The Hotel Southland offers free parking and its restaurant is open 24 hours a day, for your convenience.

Convention tickets are a mere $2.50, which covers admission and all related activities; this is your best entertainment buy in fandom! Dealer tables are also $2.50 each, and we have plenty to go around, although reserving one in advance is a good idea. If you have material to sell or trade, then "Man, this is where the action is!"---and any fan who has attended our Cons in past years will agree with that statement!

We urge you to make your plans to attend, and to get your tickets right away. (And by the way, we have a real surprise for those of you who buy tickets in advance; full details in our Con Booklet.) To get your tickets, send cash, check, or money order to:

Larry Herndon (Chairman)
1830 Highland Drive
Carrollton, Texas 75006

And now about our Special Con Booklet--just keep reading...

DON'T MISS IT!!

The Con Booklet is ready for mailing now, and has more info on the Con, hotel room rates, tips on how to locate the Hotel Southland in Dallas, details on the "surprise" offered to those who buy tickets in advance, a look (?) at our Con Committee, and other fun-type goodies!! The zine is free, but please include a 6¢ stamp for postage. Copies may be had upon request from the Con Chairman.

ALTER EGO is fortunate in having acquired one of Alex Schomburg's fine illustrations for a future issue. Alex is a science-fiction illustrator par excellence. He has been in the field since the beginning and his paintings have graced the covers of countless fantasy magazines and books. Several of the finest examples will be featured in forthcoming issues of ALTER EGO. Our first article by Roy Thomas, with an exclusive look at [illegible]

THE MARVEL

TRIBUNE

#6, IS HERE!

For just 25¢, you can purchase this great issue! It features great art done by Don Sampson, fandom's newest great artist! Don is too great to draw exclusively for us, and so you'll soon see his work in many other zines--but remember, you'll see him first in The Marvel Tribune! Among our many fine writers are such greats as Mike Robertson, Pat Janson, Bill Wilson, Wally Conger, and--but lets let you buy a copy and see for yourself! THE NATIONAL MARVEL ASSOCIATION publishes this great zine, and if you join, you get it free! Send 20¢ entrance fee, and 25¢ for each issue you'd like to pay for! Our club and paper will provide any Marvel fan with tremendous entertainment--all we ask is you give us a try! Ish#7 will be on sale in June. Write: The NMA, 63 FONTAINBLEAU Dr., WILLOWDALE, ONTARIO, CANADA. You won't be sorry! 'Nuff Said!

Important: NO ORDERS FOR LESS THAN $10, please!!! Thank you!

First, some special items:

Do bullies kick sand in your face at the beach?? Well, I have a complete, 14 installment, Charles Atlas course from the 1940s that will make a new man of you! I have no idea what Charlie got for this, but take it all for $20

I very rarely ask for bids, but here is an item that is apparently so rare that I haven't seen it advertised in the past four years: a large (15x11) Disney book (Whitman-1937), color cardboard covers, titled MICKEY MOUSE, DONALD DUCK, & ALL THEIR PALS. Contains early Disney art and text...make offers!

TARZAN original Sunday pages: #839 (Rubimor,1947) $50., #904,905,908 (all by Hogarth, 1948) $65. each. All four pages for $225.

Here is a little lot consisting entirely of #1 issues, condition VG or better on all: Millie (Stan Lee), Shadow (Radio Comics), The Atom (DC), Ideal (Timely), Tales of Horror (1952), Tales of Terror (1952)(not EC), Sparkling Stars (1944), Seven Seas (1946), Sea Hound, and Don Fortune (1946). A total of ten, all vol. 1 #1, all ten for $25.

Please recheck page 60 in RB #55 and page 29 in RB #56 for my large ads that contained lots of nice old golden age material as well as mint recent comics. It will pay you to do so...I plan to sell all the material listed soon and will give some very good buys on all material listed. If you need reprint comics, superhero comics, Fiction House comics of all types, ECs, original artwork, Sunday pages, Burroughs books, Playboys, T Fact magazine, pulps, etc, etc, then be sure to send me your wantlist. Send your wantlist and tell me how much you want to spend, and I will make up a lot from your list at your price, and guarantee your satisfaction. Do it now.

I will finish off this brief ad with some lots of coverless comics. These are all from the early to mid 1950s, all in perfect condition except for missing covers. A hell of a lot of good reading for very little money:

COVERLESS COMICS (1950s)

1. 30 different Dick Tracy (Harvey) issues 1950-57. vintage Gould...$20.
2. 28 Harvey Joe Palooka issues for $8.
3. 37 romance-type comics for $5.
4. over 150 adventure-type comics, many westerns, jungle comics, some minor superheros, war, etc. All 150 of them for $20.
5. 134 crime comics-Headline, Justice Traps the Guilty, etc, etc. All $25.
6. This lot consists entirely of high-demand comics from the early 1950s such as ECs, Superman, Action, Xmas, Batman, etc. 24 comics for $20.
7. Fawcett Movie Comics-all but 2 have back covers with stills from the movie. 16 comics for $3.
8. Funny comics such as Mickey Mouse, Bugs Bunny, etc, 68 of them for $8.
9. 6 issues of WALT DISNEYS COMICS & STORIES-mid 50s-$3.
10. 11 issues of TARZAN (Dell) from mid 50s--$3.
11. a lot of 35 Lev Gleason comics from early 50s. BOY, DAREDEVIL, CRIME DOES NOT PAY...all 35 comics for $12.

* * * * * end of coverless comics* * * * * * *

Does anybody out there collect things like ARCHIE, PEP, LAUGH, and things like that? I have a bunch of them, from about 1945-55, that I'd sell very cheap, all in nice condition. Remember to write me about your wants, and let me know how large a lot to put together for you. The larger the lot I sell you, the lower the price per item. IMPORTANT NOTE: If I seem to be in an awful hurry to get rid of a lot of stuff, and I am, it's because I will not be able to carry on any selling or trading from June thru September, so please order early and do not write me after June 1. Thank you and adios for now!

Claude Helo P.O. Box 140 Buffalo,N.Y.14225

Terms: Kindly send payment with all orders. Prompt refund on sold out items but alternate choice is appreciated. All mags are in VG & better condition. Those marked G are good; CO = center fold out; NC = no covers. Those that require XF to mint write for quotes at higher prices.

All prices are net and per one. All prices on older lists are void. On all orders under $5 include 50¢ extra. I insure all orders over $10 except foreign. On orders under $10 if you want insurance include 20¢ extra. I am not responsible for uninsured orders that get lost. No returns except where not as listed. Customers receive lists free - 25¢ to non-buyers.

Important - all prices are per one magazine. 1-9 = 1 thru 9 are available but only one comic in the group is the stated price.

All comics are in good to mint condition unless otherwise specified. No cost for postage; all sales will be insured. The following comics will be sold in lots and lots only. Please do not send money or make requests for individual comics because you will not get them.

If the price does not suit you, make me an offer of your own. But do not expect to receive an answer unless I accept your bid or unless you enclose a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

I would like to take this opportunity to thank all the people who ordered from my previous list or responded to my want list. I hope I will get as good a response this time. I would also like to apologize for the poor reproduction of my last ad. I hope this one has turned out better.

MIKE NOLAN * 743 N. REDWOOD AVE. * SAN JOSE, CALIFORNIA 95128

ANNOUNCING--THE FIRST OF A NEW SERIES OF COMIC BOOK INDEXES NOW AVAILABLE: VOLUME ONE OF THE GENERAL INDEX TO GOLDEN AGE COSTUME AND SUPER HERO COMICS.

THIS FIRST VOLUME, COMPILED BY MIKE NOLAN IN COLLABORATION WITH HOWARD KELTNER AND RAYMOND MILLER, LISTS THE APPEARANCES OF EACH COSTUME AND SUPER HERO IN ALL COMICS OF THE FOLLOWING NINE GOLDEN AGE PUBLISHING HOUSES:

NATIONAL * TIMELY * MLJ * NEDOR * FAWCETT * QUALITY FICTION HOUSE * FOX * ACE * PLUS BONUS SECTION

COVERING OVER 125 TITLES AND HUNDREDS OF HEROES, THIS INDEX IS A MUST FOR THE SERIOUS COLLECTOR, OR ANYONE INTERESTED IN THE COMIC FIELD. IN ADDITION TO COMPLETE DATA ON COSTUME HEROES AND COVER FEATURES OF OVER 2,000 GOLDEN AGE COMICS FOR THESE NINE LEADING COMPANIES, IMPORTANT DATES AND MANY NOTES ARE ALSO INCLUDED.

A FURTHER ADDITION TO THIS INDEX IS A SPECIAL BONUS SECTION*--A PREVIEW OF VOLUME TWO-- LISTING COMPLETE DATA ON OVER 25 MORE GOLDEN AGE TITLES FROM THE SMALLER COMPANIES, INCLUDING SUCH TITLES AS CATMAN, GREEN HORNET, MAN OF WAR, BLUE BOLT, AND MANY OTHERS.

PRINTED PHOTO OFFSET, THIS INDEX WILL BE A VALUABLE COLLECTOR'S GUIDE FOR THE COLLECTING AND BUYING OF GOLDEN AGE COMICS. HOW OFTEN HAVE YOU BOUGHT A COMIC NOT KNOWING WHAT WAS THE CONTENTS*? NOW YOU CAN HAVE THIS INFORMATION AT YOUR FINGERTIPS. SEVERAL YEARS OF RESEARCH HAVE NOW MADE THIS TYPE OF COMPLETE, COMPREHENSIVE WORK AVAILABLE FOR THIS FIRST TIME.

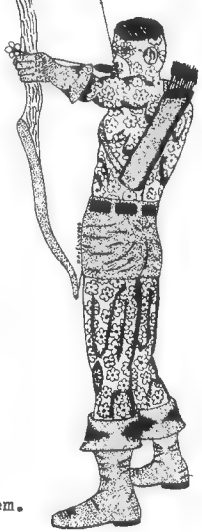
SUPERZINE

4214 20th Ave. So.
Minneapolis, Minn. 55407



What is a SUPERZINE? Well, we are (we believe in honesty). But, you ask, what is it about us that's so "super"? No, DC fan we're not a Superman fanzine (we're SORTA dedicated to Marvel--but not totally), we left the word "super" in its adjective form to denote greatness. Our greatness is typified by some of the stuff we've printed: an analysis of Jim Steranko by well-known sercon fan Greg Kishel; a pictorial expose of art thief Dan Adkins, showing panel-by-panel examples of art he's stolen from Russ Manning (the article has rocked fandom--SZ #4); an article on Batman used as Communist propaganda; an article on Nazism and Marvel.....and our humor "thing" the FNI items. AD INFINITUM!

PAYMENT FOR ARTICLES! $3.00 for most controversial and $3.00 for most humorous articles submitted each ish--membership in SZ Club is mandatory to enter contest. (Note: All entries become property of SZ. We reserve the right to cancel prizes in issues that lack quality submissions. You must catagorize your entry.)

SZ CLUB! Membership is 25¢, Those who join the club get a numbered membership card, copies for 25¢, back copies for 25¢, and receive at no extra cost!, the SZ Newsletter (which means you get something at least every three weeks!). You do not have to be a "member" to order SZ.

ISSUES! Current ish is #5--entirely photo-offset, digest size with wraparound binding cover by Ellwood!--30¢ to non-members*25¢ for SZ members. Issues 3 and 4 (both photo-offset) are available--30@ to non-mem.

NOTE! Make checks and money orders payable to Brian Bjorgen! Bye & Buy!

NOW YOU CAN OWN THIS AND OTHER CLASSICS OF THE COMIC BOOK WORLD: THE ISSUES EVERY COMIC COLLECTOR DREAMS OF!! AND THE PRICES?!! HOO BOY.

BATMAN No. 1 FOR SALE!!!

YES, YOU HEARD RIGHT!! I ACTUALLY DO HAVE BATMAN #1 FOR SALE!!!! Also many other Golden Age oldies, such as BATMAN #2, SUPERMAN #1 and #2 and 3, and many, many others! Just keep reading!!!

The batman is up for bids, which start at only $12.00. Hard to believe, isn't it? Only twelve measly dollars for this great issue which sells for $150.00 in mint condition. However, if you really want it, try to get your bids up high, as I expect quite a few. Now, here's the only drawback(I bet you were just waiting for this!): The issue has no cover, and has two centerfolds out. A pity, eh? However, the stories The ORIGIN OF BATMAN and two Joker stories(including his origin) are complete. The last few pages from a monster story and the first few from the Catwoman story are the ones that are out. So, this $150.00 issue sells for only,TWELVE DOLLARS plus. All bids must be in by June 2, 1968, and should include Stamped, Self-addressed Envelopes.

The price for Batman #2 is only $8.00. However, the issue is coverless and has some pages out. The Superman #2 is only $12.00. It is coverless and has the fi rst page missing, but all stories are completely understandable. #3 is only $9.00, it being coverless and 1st page missing, which interferes with only the last story.

MANY, MANY OTHER COMICS: The extremely valuable and rare NEW YORK WORLD'S FAIR COMICS, 1940 edition. The issue is coverless and has the first and last few pages missing. This makes the Superman and Batman stories incomplete, but Zatarra, Hour-Man, Johnny Thunderbolt, Sandman, and many other stories are all complete. Only $8.00 THIS THING IS 88(eighty-eight) pages long, not including those missing!!!!!

RARE COMICS  RARE COMICS  RARE COMICS  RARE COMICS

TERMS: All itemsin very good to mint condition, most are of the latter. Payment must accompany all orders. First come, first served. Alternates appreciated. No orders under $3.00.

TRADES: My Want List is at the end of the ad. You must be willing to make me an extremely fine offer for what you want because I prefer money over trades, matter of fact, I prefer $$$ over anything. I was brought up on "Uncle Scrooge" comics, one of the greatest pieces of literature in motivating the American businessman.

DISCOUNTS: I'm interested in selling EVERYTHING!!! If there's somebody out there who's interested in investing some money now with the idea of going into business for himself (the "Funny Book" business), get in contact with me. I'm not one of these "leaving the country" or "getting drafted" (Goddamn) cases, so I'm not sacrificing everything at ridiculous prices, I just have to devote more time to school and pursuing my musical profession. So if you're willing, and able (you got enough $$$), think it over.

IMPORTANT: NO ORDERS AFTER JUNE 15. My part-time partner, Tom Andrae, and I will be leaving on our chauffered excursion across the country to some "hick" town called New York, whereupon we will use some of our important time to stop at the ComiCon and make the "Gold Hunters" cream their pants when they see our goodies.

An important news bulletin has just arrived at the office: It is announced the World (Bronx) famous comic book dealer and connosieur of Big Deals, Marty Svigir, is alive and well in Tijuana. "Would you like to meet my seester, senior?"

TIP: It is a known fact that West Coast comic book dealer'S standards of condition are much higher than that of their East Coast followers in trade. From my experiences of travelling around the country and being in the comic book business over nine (9) years, I will truthfully say that a "condition conscious" comic collector is safer off in ordering his comics from the West Coast dealers whom over the years have gained the reputation of satisfying their customer with a small % of returned items.

Original "bit" that was worn and slobbered upon in the mouth of "White Wind", Golden Arrow's horse. Make offer. Nothing less than Mary Marvel's G-string will be accepted.

I have just heard over the radio the tragic death of Martin Luther King. This about cinches my decision to leave this screwed-up country and try to find peace in Europe. This does not make me proud to call myself an American. For those of you who sympathize with me, I urge you to help me "get out of here" by speeding up the liquidation of my collection in purchasing my books.

I cannot completely invision how big the loss of Dr. King will be to the Negro, but I get an idea of it when I think of how President Kennedy's loss affected me.

FANDOM'S AGENT LIVES!

Yes, fandoms newest ad and article zine has been published. I'm not going to bore you (heard that line before?) by telling you how great it is. Just stop and think about what you want in a fanzine. Got your ideas? Here is what FA has:

1. a perfect (yes, absolutely perfect!) monthly schedule
2. it is entirely photo-offset
3. it has that famous wrap-around binding
4. ad rates are almost half those of this magazine: Full page $9.00, 1/2 page $5.00, 1/4 page $2.75
5. subscriptions are also less--see below
6. all copies sent flat in envelopes
7. the artists are the greatest:
   a) the first issue had a superb front cover in the true E.C. tradition by pro Dick Mosso, and the back cover was by the illustrious Syd Shores!
   b) the second issue has a cover, again in the E.C. tradition, by fandom's own Jim Van Hollebeke
   c) the third will feature a cover of the Vision, by Buddy Saunders, to prove that I remember super-heroes
   d) for the fourth issue, we will again have a pro, the tremendous Joe Salini, of JMS and Gosh Wow fame
8. FA will also feature interior art by such guys as Bill Wilson & Paul Dyroff
9. articles. hmmmmmm. does the name Glen Miller do anything to you? or John Ryan, our correspondent to the far south, of Bidgee fame?!!
10. other articles will come from England-Ian Penman-and, of course, the states. here at home, we'll have guys like Gene Kousek, Rich Pujol, Randy Glessner, George Schwartz, and one article-or rather a letter-by John Angell. Any of you old timers remember him?
11. but forget not the best part, the ads. and ads there are. there are thousands of comics, BLB'S, Pop-Ups, and even original art in every issue
12. and best of all, the afore-mentioned monthly schedule. it will never be late-it never HAS been late. this is permanently true, as I will refuse to hold up production for a slow article. and also because FA is professionally printed-which leaves no chance for a ditto or mimeo to break down.

YOU'VE DEMANDED IT-
IT'S HERE!
SO WHAT A'YA GONNA DO ABOUT IT?

20¢ New

The Comic Forum #1

New 20¢

A forum is a public meeting, or any medium for public discussion.

The Comic Forum is an attempt to provide this medium of discussion on comics. This is not a fanzine where only established critics and collectors write articles. We are going to devote HALF of the zine to nothing but letters from you fellow fans. The object is to tell the rest of fandom what you like or dislike or any ideas about comics. This is your forum for discussing comics. There will not be the usual quips by the editor, but serious answers to your questions. Besides the letters there will also be articles and strips to tell what the established critics think. We want you to write and discuss what they say. Only in this way will you have a direct voice in fandom. We also have the cheapest ad rates in fandom, so that those who do not have big collections to sell can have a place to advertize. Remember this is your fanzine, so write and voice your opinion.

One service we will provide for you who do write is that your letters will be seen by the comic companies themselves. We are sending without cost to the companies and important individuals in the comic industry. This way your grips get to where they will be noticed.

The subscription rates for The Comic Forum run at 20¢ @.
ex: 1 issue - 20¢
2 " - 40¢
3 " - 60¢ etc.
All issues are mailed 1st class.
Add 10¢ for mailing flat.

For you who can never find an inexpensive means of advertizine we have the lowest ad rates in the country.
$1.50 for a full page
1.00 " 1/2 "
.50 " 1/4 " Please type ads.
Remember these are the lowest ad rates, as well as, appearing monthly!!

We also have a policy that if you have an article or a letter (at least 1/2 page) printed, you will recieve either two free issues, or else 1/4 page of ad space free. Please tell your choice with the letter or article.

The zine will be printed in spirit mainly because we want to provide an inexpensive medium of discussion, yet with a great quantity of ideas (your ideas). This way we can also come out at a regular monthly schedule.

REMEMBER this is YOUR FORUM, so WRITE and VOICE YOUR OPINION!!

BEYOND INFINITY #1

Is still available. All orders mailed the same day order received. This fantastic first edition is entirely photo offset. So for a mere .50¢ this 8½ by 11 fanzine will be sent to you. If you include three six cent stamps we will send you a hard card stock cover plus first class postage. All contributors on request will be paid for any accepted work. Print run 1000. Order from: Robert Gustaveson * 6060 Longridge Ave. * Van Nuys, Calif. 91401. This issue features; "The Rebirth of Sword and Sorcery"-By Gary Vargas, "Don't Bug Me"-Six page strip by Gary Vargas and Ken Souza. "The Agilitan"-Six page Super Hero strip by Mike Bennett, "A Universe Born"-By Franklin Littman, and "The Fifth Dimension"-By Keith Tucker, which is an eight page strip. Also included in Beyond Infinity #1 is a short one page strip By myself. This strip was written more than a year ago, and only one panel of the art was drawn recently. This short story is called "It's our world". The front cover has a special gray tone added to it, it's really wild, by Keith Tucker. Below to your right is an example of the artwork in our next issue. Due to the information that we have recently received we have had to change our title to Graphic Illusions. We will start with issue number two. It will contain work by pros (Who we will mention in our next ad), it will be wrap around, it will contain stories like "The Reprobates"-By Gary Vargas, "To Destroy all Evil"-By Robert Gustaveson, Artwork and stories by: Ken Souza, Mike Bennett, Rob Gluckson, Tucker, Jeff Ames, Jim Shull...and others. We will have better paper stock used, some color, 8½ by 11, 40-60 PHOTO OFFSET pages. Many ads reduced and exact printing. And it will cost only $1.00 if you order today. Remember we will have professional work. And all new, non copied artwork. If you wait to find out which pros are selling us art, the price will increase at least .25¢ by next ish. Order both today from: ROBERT GUSTAVESON 6060 LONGRIDGE AVE., VAN NUYS, CALIF. 91401. THANK YOU...

A request for help from comic fandom...but first a grateful "thank you" to the many who've helped me in the past.

In addition to other projects, I am working on a comic book index which should truly be a plus for fandom. This will be a complete, issue by issue index of all Golden Age super hero Timelys, 1939-1955.

Designed to complement Raymond Miller's fine RB-GG Timely Special, and covering some 25 titles, this will be a definitive reference work for all Timely collectors and Golden Age fans. I am hoping fandom can help me to complete this work quickly so that it can be made available as soon as possible. With over 300 Timelys completely indexed, I need help on the following 82 issues, mostly late numbers:

All Select 2,8,10 Blonde Phantom 12,14,17,18,19,20 All-Winners 15 Kid 11 Miss America 2 Mystic 2,4 (1940) U.S.A. 10,11, 12,13,15,16 Young Allies 7,11,15,17,18,20 Young Men 25,26 Human Torch 19,21,22,23,24,25,28,29,31,32,33,34,35,38 Submariner 14,18, 19,20,21,23,24,27,28,29,30,31,32 Marvel Mystery 5, 30,43,44,45,46, 48,49,50,56,57,58,60,63,64,65,67,70,72,73,75,76,77,78,80,81,87,88,92

Information needed is (1) date of comic (2) each character (3) title of story, if any (4) number of pages of each story. If you can help on even just one comic, would you take a few moments to help?

Thanks to fans Joe Stoner and M.C. Goodwin, I now need the above information on only 11 Nedor comics before my index for that company is complete and ready to go. The remaining 11 are Amazing's Best 6, Exciting 3,5,26,27,68 Startling 1,8,13,14 and Thrilling 30. Again, help here would be most appreciated.

***** ***** *****

Remember my standing offer on identifying coverless Golden Age super hero issues: If you would like to have your's identified, send me details as to contents, etc., and I'll do what I can. However, please enclose SAE's.

***** ***** *****

If you have old comics of the World War II era and would like to sell, trade, or just discuss them, drop me a line. Keeps my postman busy!

***** ***** *****

A relaxing and profitable summer to all of comic fandom and I hope to be seeing many of you on my travels around the country.

HEROES ILLUSTRATED #3 is now available for immediate delivery. H. I. #3 is a giant 68 page issue crammed with quality articles, professional art, and special features.

Featured are three in depth articles. The Face, one of Columbia's best comic strips, is analyzed in depth and accompanied by art by Mart Bailey, the original artist. Tex Thompson's alter ego, Mr. America, is the topic of an interesting study which is enhanced by the addition of the reprint of the origin story by Bernard Baily. The feature article, Prince Valiant, is accompanied by a reprint of the art from the first 32 Sunday strips. Many other features.

HEY!! IT'S THE LATEST RB&CC!!!
Schelly after D.MARTIN
GAAH!!! THERE MUST BE 100 'ZINE ADS!!! HOW DO I CHOOSE BETWEEN THEM??
AAHH! THERE'S THE ONE FOR ME!

SENSE OF WONDER

"THE MAGAZINE FOR THOSE WITH DISCRETION"

Let's face it ... very few fans can afford to purchase every fanzine advertised in RB&CC. But how can he choose between them? What should he look for in an amateur magazine before sending in his money? Most fans agree that the following are good criteria: 1) an able staff and high quality contributions 2) clear reproduction and lay-out 3) an experienced editor and 4) a reasonable price. Sense of Wonder fulfills these stringent requirements. Our staff is made up of Fandom's most respected artists and writers that have had years of experience: Ronn Foss (former publisher of this fanzine), D. Bruce Berry, Doug Potter, Alan Hutchinson, Mickey Schwaberow, Raymond Miller, Steven Kelez, Jim Shooter, Bill Schelly, Richard Trageser, and many others, most of whom are pro or semi - pro. Top fans will attest to the fact that these fans constantly turn out the very highest quality work available. Secondly, hardly a letter arrives that doesn't compliment our extremely clear printing,and our clean,easy-to-follow lay-outs. Other fanzines often lapse into a confusing hodge-podge of typing and lettering, but not so in Sense of Wonder. Great pains are taken to make sure SofW is well organized and just pleasant to read. Just because a fanzine is offset it isn't always good. Our editor, Bill Schelly, has been publishing various fanzines for nearly four years. What would you expect to pay for a fanzine of the calibre of Sense of Wonder? $1.00? 75¢? 50¢? No! Sense of Wonder costs only 35¢ per copy, and that includes mailing in a sturdy manilla envelope, as well! While we do sell single copies, we do prefer subscriptions. They save excess mailing and a lot of trouble on our part as well as yours. Our rate for a three issue subscription is $1.00. Or, for those who want to forego mailing headaches for an even lengthier period, we charge only $2.00 for 7 issues, a savings of 45¢! You'd like to know a bit more about SofW? Well, each issue is approximately 40 8½" x 11" pages long. The format is 'anything goes', but so far, we've featured: first the editorial, entitled ET AL; sometimes we have had cartoons or other humor features. Our letter column has been said to be "At the very least, interesting and enjoyable reading." One of Fandom's favorite amateur characters, the Immortal Corpse -Envoy of Death- is regularly seen within our pages, as well as Brimstone, a fiery new character by the writer/artist of Adventure, Action and other DC titles, Jim Shooter! Plus other acclaimed features and articles. The first issue, with its relatively small print run was an immediate sellout. #2 sold out within a month of publication, and #3 is now sold out. The current issue, now available, is #4, which features a beautiful cover by Alan Hutchinson, cartoons and satire by Bill Schelly, Brimstone by Shooter/Schelly, a regular "Who-Dun-It" mystery by professional writer, Richard Trageser, editorial,and much more. 3 - issue subscriptions will be from #4 to #6. We've worked long, hard hours to produce a fanzine of the likes of Sense of Wonder. Each issue is a product of careful planning. And now we ask you only to try us. Response to our first three editions has been almost overwhelming ..... why don't YOU join the bandwagon? Why don't YOU risk 35¢ or $1.00? Sense of Wonder is, indeed ... "The Magazine for Those With Discretion"! Send to:

Your ticket to excitement. . .

In 1966 the Gateway Comic Art Collectors of St. Louis co-sponsored GATEWAY CON I as our city's first comicon. Some 80 fans registered at that first very successful con. While there was no con held in 1967, plans had already gone into effect to make the 2nd Gateway Con even bigger and better than the first! We've worked hard toward that goan for a year now and we feel we've lined up a program that will be enjoyed by ALL fans.

Discussions: One of the highlights to the three-day con will be a large panel discussion with some of fandom's most well-known personalities participating. You'll meet fans like Glen Johnson, Ed Aprill, Alan Hanley, Derrill Rothermich, Gary Brown, Larry Brody and others. This discussion will be open to participation from all attendees.

Displays: We will have huge displays of old, rare comic books and strips plus numerous foreign comics, original art and posters. The walls of the convention suite will be lined with art and several pieces will be given away as a door prize.

Films: Movies are a popular part of cons and we have some exceptional features such as the first Flash Gordon serial starring Buster Crabbe in a feature length edition! We also have the silent SF classic "Metropolis" and two English editions of Mexican films featuring the popular hero of that country--Samson!

Banquet: The true high point of the con will be our Guest of Honor banquet on Saturday night. Roy Thomas, fan-turned-pro will be the featured speaker, though he will also be present for the entire con. In addition, the Gateway Club is throwing an open-door party on Friday night with free refreshments. We look forward to meeting YOU!

Dealers: Fans from all parts of the country will be present with thousands upon thousands of comics, BLBs, strips, pop-ups, hard-backs and who knows what for sale. Tables are only $3 to dealers. If you've had trouble finding something, it will probably be here. And if you've some material you'd like to sell, let us know...

The date for Gateway Con II is June 28-30 1968. If you like, come early and help us set things up! We've got a beautiful hotel, fully air conditioned and excellent rooms. Rates are moderate, too. But, if you'd like more information, write: Robert Schoenfeld, 9516 Minerva Ave., St. Louis, Mo. 63114. Bob will send you free of charge a 10 page, offset progress report with many more details on all the activities of Gateway Con II. In addition to program, it contains a rundown on the hotel, the guest of honor, the movies, the banquet...plus some very fine artwork.

GATEWAY CON 2!

Tickets: $2.50

CONTENTS

Within two months after publication, Gosh Wow! #1 was completely sold-out of its entire 500 copy print run. Gosh Wow! #2 is now nearing the final stages of completion and we feel very safe in saying that this issue will prove an even greater success than #1 which was hailed by pros and fans alike as one of fandom's finest publications. But we would rather let you judge that for yourself...just look over our contents:

* "The Prize Comics Group"--an article by Glen Johnson on this unusual lineup of characters from the 1940's. Illustrated by Raymond Miller and Alan Hutchinson with a number of photos from the comics themselves.

* "He Shares The Saddle With Danger--the story of the Rawhide Kid" by Wayne Warfield. The full lowdown on Marvel's western adventurer with illustrations by Ken Keller. Again we employ photos of the books as well.

* "Open Letter--In Defense of National"--a rebuttal to the Open Letter of issue #1. This will prove to be of great interest to fans whether you were with us in #1 or not. Illustrations by Alan Hutchinson. By Bob Cosgrove.

* An Interview With Ron Cobb the famous editorial cartoonist of the Los Angeles Free Press. Plus five reproductions of Cobb's amazing cartoons.

* Raymond Miller returns in #2 with another installment in his regular column The Question Corner. Ray answers many questions asked by YOU with art provided by Ray and Alan Hutchinson. Ray has also provided us with an index to the Captain America comics of the 40's and a wild illo by Jim Jones.

* Larry Brody returns in #2 with another tale of the NIGHTWALKER--fandom's text hero for fans who hate text heroes. Illustrations are by John Fantucchio and we guarantee some of the finest art ever found in a fanzine.

* Rick Weingroff, though out of fandom, has provided a fascinating article which he calls "A Suggestive Approach" to comic books and Frederic Wertham. This one is bound to set you to thinking...

* Richard Feenberg gives us a brief introduction to Crockett Johnson's unusual creation--Barnaby. Including a number of reproductions from the Barnaby strip.

* Mike Maxim presents an interesting (if somewhat cynical) view of Man of War Comics--a little known comic of the 40's. Steve Kelez inspired and Alan Hanley executed the art.

* For the strip fans in the audience we have two 2-page themes by George Metzger. Comic strip art for the thinking fan...

* We also have a six-page farce by Larry Brody written around the artwork provided by Bill Dubay. Originally illustrated for a serious tale, we've reworked to provide some fantastic humor...

* We're probably forgetting something, there are so many features in this issue. Editorial, ads, some beautiful fan and pro art and much much more. Don't say we didn't warn you--this one's going to be a collector's item.

COMIC BOOKS TO SELL: DONALD WHITE 785 RICHMOND AVE. BUFFALO, N.Y. 14222

This add is primarily to SELL my poorer quality comic books so that the young comic fan can obtain 1960-1968 comics at a low price.
I am dividing my 3000 plus comic books into four classifications(see below).

GROUP D (poor-fair) Covers maybe missing, out, torn, patched, or parts missing. Pages maybe torn, pieces out from pages. Cover and pages maybe soiled. Center fold maybe loose (not missing). Staples maybe loose or missing. Comic book complete ((exc ept in a few cases the covers are missing.)

GROUP C (fair - good) Covers complete but maybe slightly torn but taped. Bindings maybe worn and ragged. Center fold maybe loose. Covers and pages maybe slightly soiled. Comic book complete.

GROUP B (good - fine) These are for the serious comic book collector and are in good shape (not mint).

GROUP A (fine - excellent) These are practically mint and are for the collector who wants a fresh from the newstand copy.

The following list gives the Publisher, Group letter (designation) and Price for EACH comic book.

I am primarily interested in selling my Group C & B comics as the prices show. Please follow the instructions listed below carefully.

1. List the name and volume number of each comic book wanted with the Group letter you wish to buy.
2. Enclose a self addressed envelope or postcard. (I will notify you of the material that I have from your want list.)
3. I will return your card with indications of what I have with a self addressed envelope so that you can order.
4. Few orders under $1.50 a charge of 25¢ extra for postage and packing. Under $3.00 a charge of 15¢ is made. Over $3.00 order sent Postpaid.
5. Address all letters and inquirers to: DONALD WHITE 785 RICHMOND AVE. BUFFALO, NEW YORK 14222

If prices for the A & B Group are too high, indicate what comic books you need, group letter, year and prices you will pay. If see many comic books and having a potential price I can pay more to obtain this material. If you should like a grab bag, indicate the Group letter, Publisher, Year or Years and I will send you a set.

That's right Fawcett's great comic hero is now available on tape. All tape recorder owners can now have, the sound from the movie SPY SMASHER RETURNS (this movie was actually a cut-down version of the Spy Smasher serial). In this movie (as in the original serial) SS battles The Mask, an enemy agent out to steal Americas war secrets.

It runs 1½ hours, is in good sound condition, and stars Kane Richmond as SPY SMASHER, Marguerite Chapman as Eve Corby,

The special price on this tape is only $5.00. It will be recorded on a 7 inch reel (unless you specify 5 inch) at 3 3/4 ips.

For you that only have small recorders that take only 3 inch reels, you can order it by sending $6.00 and two empty 3 inch reels. (We will record it for you at 1 7/8 ips).

If you have the ADVENTURES OF CAPTAIN MARVEL on tape, you will certainly want to add this SPY SMASHER adventure to your collection.

THE ADVENTURES OF CAPTAIN MARVEL

"Chapter 1 opens with the Malcolm expedition in Siam, where are trying to uncover secret information about the ancient Scotpian Dynasty. They locate a tomb but it bears an inscription warning against entering, but it is disregarded by all except young Billy Batson. A volcano erupts trapping all but Billy who is then confronted by an ageless man--Shazam. He then bestows upon Billy the ability to transform himself into the mighty CAPTAIN MARVEL, by simply saying the word SHAZAM! As Marvel, Billy rescues hisw friends and then changes back to Billy Batson....."

And that is the beginning of this 12 chapter serial by Republic Pictures. And now, if you have a tape recording machine, you can now have for your collection the sound from the entire serial, which runs approximately 3 hours and 40 minutes. Yes, this will be a valuable addition to your super hero collection. And it is now available to you from THE SPCA's tape department at the regular price of $8.25. It is recorded at 3 3/4 ips and is in good to very good sound.

THE COMIC READER

has been one of fandom's outstanding publications!

66th issue!

HERE'S WHY: each issue regularly features the very finest in fan art (with occassional pro work) on both covers and interior illustrations. Art to the left is a very small sample of the art we have run in just the last year up to the latest issue.

Each issue carries the Fanzine Index--a guide to current fan publications with ratings given by John McGeehan.

Each issue carries regular editorials, columns and letters. Bob Schoenfeld does a regular editorial while pro-writer Larry Brody does a feature column. Each issue carries a lengthy letter column plus many ads for various fanzines.

Another regular feature is "What's News"--a column of comment and commentary on current and future happenings in the comic field. We often have the news several weeks before it appears on stands.

The Comic Reader is now in its 66th monthly issue. It is produced offset, wrap-around with highly readable type. Issues sell for 25¢ each or you can buy a four issue subscription for $1.00. SEND TO: Robert Schoenfeld, 9516 Minerva Ave., St. Louis, Missouri., 63114.
